Some important information

- With the recent floods, it is understandable if you are feeling concerned and experiencing a mix of strong emotions or physical reactions right now.
- For those who have faced flooding before, this might be a particularly challenging time that is stirring up memories and feelings of sadness, fear, and grief.
- It's important to remember that recovery is a personal journey, and everyone experiences things differently. For some people, recovery
- Remember, experiencing these emotions is a normal response to such events, but these concerns may lead to other issues if they are not managed.
- If you find yourself experiencing strong emotions, remember that talking about your worries and feelings as well as remaining connected to others can make them more manageable. It is important to identify what actions can be taken to address the source of your concerns. Be aware of the signs that you might need some extra support and get help if you need it. Find out more here: https://www.betterhealth.vic.gov.au/servicesandsupport/trauma-
- Seeking help is a sign of strength and often the first step in

GRANTS

Strengthening Rural Communities - Small & Vital; Prepare and Recover; Rebuilding Regional Communities

The Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal (FRRR) has three grant schemes currently open. The Strengthening Rural Communities Small & Vital stream gives small remote, rural and regional communities across Australia the opportunity to access funds for a broad range of initiatives that directly and clearly benefit local communities. Grants up to $10,000 are available for a broad range of grassroots, community-led initiatives that directly and clearly benefit local communities that strengthen local people, places and climate solutions, with a preference for smaller communities (populations under 15,000). Applications close 5pm VIC time (AEDT) 26 February 2024. Funding announced late April 2024. For more information on all three grants visit https:// frrr.org.au/funding/place/src-small-vital/

Tiny Towns Funds

The Tiny Towns Fund supports local communities to deliver quality tourism and community facility projects, such as splash parks and bike trails, playgrounds, community hall and library upgrades, public art and more. Victorian towns with a population of up to 5,000 people are eligible to apply. Applications for grants between $5,000 and $50,000 from Regional Development Victoria are now open for community and not-for-profit groups. Applications close 5pm, Sunday 25 February 2024. Applicants will be required to make a co-contribution towards the proposed project budget in line with the requirements outlined in the Program Guidelines. To find out more, or to apply, visit https://www.rdv.vic.gov.au/grants-and.../tinytowns-fund
