This NAIDOC Week (7-14 July 2024), Inglewood will host artworks, workshops and activities celebrating the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. All Loddon residents are invited to embrace and take part in the week of free activities, developed by DUMAWUL, Dja Dja Wurrung creative arts and cultural tourism enterprises, and the Loddon Shire Council.

Join a Cultural Tour at Kooyoora State Park to understand the significance of the Park to Dja Dja Wurrung People, as well as the benefits to Inglewood's businesses and community being at the gateway to the Park.

As well as Kooyoora State Park Cultural Tours, Loddon Shire Council is proud to be working alongside DUMAWUL to offer free entry to a week-long exhibition of Dja Dja Wurrung artworks and artefacts at the Inglewood Town Hall, plus weaving workshops for a hands-on cultural learning experience. Registrations are essential and places are limited.

Join us in honouring Dja Dja Wurrung history, culture and achievements from 7 July – 14 July in Inglewood.

Cultural tours, art exhibitions, workshops, storytelling and artefacts show-and-tell, and more! Scan QR code for more details.
