ONBOARDING VOLUNTEERS

Volunteer onboarding, a key pillar of volunteer Management, the process of integrating volunteer recruits into your organisation. Onboarding is your chance to welcome new volunteers and instill the knowledge and skills necessary to perform their volunteer roles effectively.

A thoughtful onboarding process can benefit all involved, including your organization, the community you serve, and your volunteers.

Think of orientation as a component of onboarding. Onboarding, on the other hand, is a multi-step process that encompasses the vetting, placement, orientation, and training of new volunteers.
